It's time for the annual collection of cards and cookies for those that are homebound. All contributions are due to Lana McLaughlin no later than Dec. 17th.

• CAROLING WE GO

All able bodies are invited to go Caroling with us on Wednesday, December 20th. There will be no regular services that night. After caroling, the Fellowship Committee will provide a light meal. Sign up on bulletin board.

We are also in need of families that would be blessed by a visit from our Carolers!

• THANKS

A big shout out to all those that came out and helped get the church dressed for Christmas! It looks great (as always!)

• NEW YEARS EVE PARTY

The Activities Committee will host a New Eve's Party on Sunday evening, Dec 31st. The festivities will begin at 7pm. Families are asked to bring finger foods and the Committee will provide the drinks and fun. There will be plenty of great games to help you stay awake! So, even if you can't make it the whole way until midnight... come out for a bit and enjoy the fellowship with your church family.

• OUT OF THE OFFICE

Please note that Pastor Tom will be out on vacation December 11-17. Mark Bundren will bring us the message on Sunday, 12/17. And, Joanne will be out of the office much of December 27-29.

WORD of the week

τελέω teleō tel-eh'-o

A single Greek verb teleo and means that something is brought to an end, is fully accomplished, has achieved its destined goal or is brought to perfection.

Strong's G5055

QUOTE of the week

"There is nothing for God to do. "It is finished." There is nothing for you to do. "It is finished." Christ need not bleed. "It is finished." You need not weep. "It is finished." God the Holy Spirit need not delay because of your unworthiness, nor need you delay because of your helplessness. "It is finished." Every stumbling block is rolled out of the road; every gate is opened. The bars of brass are broken, the gates of iron are burst asunder. "It is finished." Come and welcome; come and welcome!

The general religion of mankind is "Do," but the religion of a true Christian is "Done." "It is finished," is the believer's conquering word."

— Charles Spurgeon
