WORD of the week

PARADOX, n.

A seemingly absurd or self-contradictory statement or proposition that when investigated or explained may prove to be well founded or true.

QUOTE of the week

"And in nothing has Christ appeared so much as a lion, in glorious strength destroying His enemies, as when He was brought as a lamb to the slaughter. In His greatest weakness He was most strong; and when He suffered most from His enemies, He brought the greatest confusion to His enemies. Thus this admirable conjunction of diverse excellencies was manifest in Christ, in Him offering up Himself to God in His last sufferings."

— Jonathan Edwards
