ANNOUNCEMENTS and INFORMATION

- CHILD CARE WORKER
- LETTERS FOR BRYAN

Karamie Waller is in need of an adult childcare worker for the 2nd Sunday of each month. If you are interested in helping with this ministry, please see her this morning.

- VBS WORK DAY

It's time to start getting some of decorating and other tasks completed for VBS. June 5th at 5pm. No experience necessary... ALL hands are needed!

- IBSA GUEST SPEAKER

There are more slaves in the world today than there ever has been at any time in history. The world of human trafficking is a unique mission field for those seeking to minister to hurting and lost people. Join us next Sunday evening at 6pm to hear how IBSA is involved with this mission field and what we can do to help.

- VBS MEETING

There will be a quick meeting immediately after services TODAY to pass out teaching materials and relay important information. If you will not be able to make it, please see Karamie Waller.

If you have anything to send with Kaylee Adams, please get to her by next Sunday, June 3rd.

- VBS IS COMING

Summer is almost here and it's time to start thinking about VBS. There is a sign up sheet on the bulletin board for helpers. You can also sign up for VBS shirts. They are $12 each.

WORD of the week

EXASPERATE

1. To anger; to irritate to a high degree; to provoke to rage; to enrage; to excite anger, or to inflame it to an extreme degree. We say, to exasperate a person, or to exasperate the passion of anger or resentment.
2. To aggravate; to embitter; as, to exasperate enmity.
3. To augment violence; to increase malignity; to exacerbate; as, to exasperate pain or a part inflamed.

QUOTE of the week

"I want to make an important application: Parents can cause their children to become angry and bitter. I'm sure you know this and I can assure you that they know this. But I think we can go even a step further to say there are times when our children are justified in their anger toward us. There are times when we so provoke our children, we so exasperate them, that anger is the fitting response. It may even be the right response if that anger is expressed in righteous ways. There may be times when your children's anger toward you is more righteous than your actions or attitude toward them."

— Tim Challies
