

SERMON NOTES

Answer me when I call, O
God of my righteousness!
You have given me relief when I was in distress. Be gracious to me and hear my prayer!

- OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD SPEAKER

It's that time of year again, kids have headed back to school and now we need to work on the church's budget for next year. If you are in charge of a line item, you should have been given a budget worksheet. Sure, it may show the wrong church year, but it really is for this year. Please have them turned into the office no later than 8am Monday morning. - or fear the wrath of Joanne! Just kidding - but please... :)

QUOTE of the week

"When I was alone, the words came to my mind with far greater power and sweetness; upon which I took the Bible, and read the words to the end of the chapter, when they were impressed on my heart with vastly greater power and sweetness still. They appeared to me with undoubted certainty as the words of God, and as words which God did pronounce concerning me. I had no more doubt of it than I had of my being. I seemed as it were to hear the great God proclaiming thus to the world concerning me; 'Who shall lay anything to thy charge', and had it strongly impressed on me how impossible it was for anything in heaven or earth, in this world or the future, ever to separate me from the love of God which was in Christ Jesus. I cannot find language to express how certain this appeared—the everlasting mountains and hills were but shadows to it. My safety and happiness and eternal enjoyment of God's immutable love seemed as durable and unchangeable as God Himself. Melted and overcome by the sweetness of this assurance, I fell into a great flow of tears and could not forbear weeping aloud. It appeared certain to me that God was my Father, and Christ my Lord and Savior, that He was mine and I His."

— Sarah Edwards (1742; meditating on Romans 8:34)
